Congratulations

You have chosen a program for your child that is accredited by the National Association for the Education of Young Children (NAEYC). For more than 20 years, families have relied on NAEYC Accreditation to ensure the quality of education and care provided in programs for young children.

naeyc® Accreditation

The mark of quality in early childhood education.